1. Three radio stations were observed at Zerbst Airfield on 10 August 1950. The first, located at point 13 on the attached sketch (see Attachment "I"), had masts between six and eight meters high. The tent associated with it measured two meters square. A second station, located at point 14 on the attached sketch, and a third, situated 300 meters due east of the runway, consisted of a single mast. Next to each, a closed radio truck was observed. Five radio trucks, each with a rod aerial extended to a height of about five meters, were also observed at a spot indicated by point 9 on the attached sketch.
